UNMANUFACTURED PRODUCTS Instruction No. 10 of 1955 (Public) The 22nd February 1955

Under Rule 233 of the Central Excise Rules, 1944, I issue the following instructions for observance by wholesale-dealers who manufacture biris through Agents, Contractors, Sattawallas and Outworkers etc. at various premises in different places.

2. Legally all Agents, Contractors and Sattawallas who manufacture biris on behalf of others are required to be licensed as Wholesale-dealers under rule 174 of the Central Excise Rules, 1944 read with Notification No. 7 of 9th June 1945 of the Government of India, Ministry of Finance (Revenue Division). Such persons are, however, exempt from taking out a licence if the Wholesale-dealer dealing in manufactured tobacco, on whose behalf they manufacture biris, follows the following procedure:—

(1) He shall append to his application for licence or renewal thereof a list showing the names and addresses of all agents, contractors and sattawallas with the details of the premises, wherein biris on his behalf are to be manufactured by such agents, contractors and sattawallas from tobacco supplied by him. Mention of this having been done should be made in the application for licence. A copy of the list or necessary extracts therefore should be supplied by him to the Range Officer in whose jurisdiction the agents, contractors and sattawallas carry on their operation. If after submission of this list, the wholesale dealer wants to engage a new agent, contractor or sattawalla he should inform the proper officer of his name, address and the details of his manufacturing premises at least 48 hours in advance or in any case before the transport of any tobacco to such person. A copy of such information should also be furnished by him to the officer whom he presented his application for licence. He should also inform the concerned Range Officers of the discontinuance of his existing Agent, Contractors or Sattawallas.

(2) He should also attach a declaration in writing that he undertakes full responsibility for the due observance by such persons of all the relevant provisions of the Central Excise Rules, 1944 and instructions issued thereunder from time to time.

(3) He shall not engage any such agent, contractor and sattawalla etc., who also manufacture biris for another licensed dealer authorised to manufacture biris.

(4) He shall not send biri tobacco to his agents, contractors and sattawallas except under the cover of a transport permit in form T.P.1 or sale note in the usual manner. If, however, the premises of the agents, contractors and sattawallas are situated within a radius of 10 miles from the main premises of the licensee, the tobacco may be sent under the cover of licensee's chit showing the following particulars:—

- (i) Printed Serial No.
- (ii) Date of issue.
- (iii) Name and address of the licensee and his L2 No.
- (iv) Name of the agent, contractor or sattawalla and the village to which the tobacco is to be sent.
- (v) No. and date of T.P.1 Sale Note or A.R.1 under which the tobacco was received by the wholesale dealer from which the issue on the chit has been done.
- (vi) No. of packages sent: their marks and numbers if any.
- (vii) Net weight of tobacco.
- (viii) Signature of licensee or his authorised agent.

These chits will be in printed bound books of 50 or 100, each chit being in duplicate. They shall not be brought into use until they are sealed with the official seal of the Inspector of Central Excise having jurisdiction over the licensee. These chits will be valid till 12 noon of the day following the day on which they were issued. The original chit shall be handed over to the transporter, while the duplicate retained by the wholesale dealer.

(5) He shall keep the account in Form E.B.3 in the following manner:—

- (a) Each issue of tobacco made to each branch agent, contractor or sattawalla should be separately entered.
- (b) Issues to workers at the main premises on a particular day may be entered as a single item against the date of issue.
- (c) Issues to outworkers direct from the main premises without employing the agency of branch contractor or sattawalla may be similarly entered as a single item in the E.B.3.
- (d) The out-turn of the finished product, shall be entered in the remarks column of E.B.3 as far as possible against the issue of the tobacco out of which the product has been made. Where this is not possible, entry may be made on the date of receipt, separately for receipts, from the main premises from agents, contractors and sattawallas and from outworkers to whom the tobacco was supplied direct from the main premises.

(6) His agents, contractors and sattawallas shall maintain a day-to-day account in accordance with the instructions contained in Rule 226 of the Central Excise Rules, 1944 in the form E.B.3 Where a sattawalla maintains account in his daily register the latter will serve the purpose of E.B.3 register.

(7) When tobacco is supplied to an outworker for manufacturing biris at his own premises i.e. away from the main licensee's premises or away from the agent's, contractor's and sattawalla's premises, the agent, contractor or the sattawalla shall make an entry of the tobacco supplied to him in a pass book prescribed as per Appendix to this Instruction.

He shall maintain the following subsidiary accounts showing:—

- (i) Complete account of tobacco issued to each factory worker and to outworker, if any, who is directly issued tobacco from the main premises, number of biris received from each factory worker and outworker and rate and amount of wages paid to each. He should also maintain the list of outworkers village-wise showing their full names, addresses and number of pass books held by them.

(ii) Account of rate of wages and amount paid to each agent, contractor or sattawalla and showing the date of payment.

His agent, contractor and sattawalla shall also similarly maintain the following accounts:—

(a) A complete village-wise list of outworkers with them and names, addresses and pass book numbers held by each.

(b) Rent and amount of wages paid to each outworker each time and the date of each payment.

Their accounts should also be produced before a Central Excise Officer on demand. The outworker will sign or make his thumb impression in the appropriate column of the pass book in token of having received the tobacco. The transport of tobacco from the main premises or the premises of the agent, contractor and sattawalla to the premises of this outworker shall be covered by the pass book and no transport document or chit is required for such removal of tobacco by an outworker.

The licensee or the agent, contractor, sattawalla, as the case may be, shall also write the number of biris manufactured by the outworker who must invariably carry the pass book on his person whenever he conveys unmanufactured tobacco to his home or the finished product to his employer. Any tobacco left over with the outworker when he completes a particular transaction and ceases to manufacture biris for the licensee or the sattawalla, shall on receipt from him be accounted as receipt by the licensee or the sattawalla in his E.B.3 or the daily register, as the case may be.

Pass books should be serially numbered and a separate pass book should be kept for each set of premises from which outworker draws his supply of tobacco. A complete list of the villages where tobacco is distributed to outworkers together with their names village-wise and number of these pass books should be furnished to the officer, in whose jurisdiction the pass book holders carry on their work.

(8) The agent, contractor and sattawalla, will return the manufactured biris to the principal manufacturer with a list showing against each worker, the number of biris manufactured by him. The principal manufacturer shall account for the number of biris received from each agent, contractor and sattawalla against his name either in the E.B.3 Register or in his subsidiary accounts mentioned in para (7) above. The lists sent by the sattawalla will be preserved in monthly bundles by the manufacturer until the accounts are checked by the Central Excise Officer.

(9) If the stock of tobacco with the agent, contractor and sattawalla or any surplus tobacco with him is to be returned to the principal manufacturer or is to be transferred to any other agent, contractor and sattawalla, it shall be removed only under cover of a chit prescribed in Para 4 above provided both the agents, contractors and sattawallas and/or the principal manufacturer are situated within a radius of 10 miles from the main premises of the licensee. All such receipts should be duly accounted for in the E.B.3 as well as in the subsidiary accounts mentioned in Para 7 above by the Principal manufacturer, and by the agent, contractor and sattawalla.

(10) Except for biris broken during routine checking to test correct filling and to verify the contents, all other defective and sub-standard biris, damaged biris and also manufacturers own biris returned on account of their being rejected by the market shall be produced by the principal manufacturer before the Inspector of Central Excise and broken in his presence by thrashing. The licensee will then separate the chaff from the tobacco which will be weighed by the Inspector. The quantity so obtained should then be accounted as receipt in the E.B.3 of the licensee and the number of biris broken shown against the receipt entry.

(11) All the records prescribed in this Instruction shall be duly certified and paged by the Central Excise Officer before they are brought into use.

(12) It is the licensee's responsibility to see that all complete records, books etc. whether maintained by him or by his agent, contractor and sattawalla are properly kept and produced when demanded for checking by the Central Excise Officer.
